Company with Experience and Infrastructure - DNIC

MICE Specialist Unit
(주)디엔아이씨
1. About DNIC

Company with Experience and Infrastructure, ‘DNIC’

Business does not depend on career but on competence. DNIC does not rely on the past but looks to the present and the future. DNIC will not settle for the present and its experiences but put emphasis on keeping promises to customers by consistent efforts and researches rather than becoming the best in the industry.

OVERVIEW

The DNIC evolution.

Passing out of the time to focus on events and ceremonies, tough competition still continues in the huge MICE industry segmented into meetings, incentives, conventions, exhibitions.

One thing that must not be forgotten in competition is to remind ourselves of our promises and ambition at the beginning and open up the future with customers.

DNIC makes the best efforts to achieve satisfactory results in project operations from customers’ point of view. Practice based on knowledge makes difference in results.

Success/failure of a project depends on how to cope with the variables that frequently occur in this industry. Therefore, DNIC prepares a number of possible cases for a single event.

As the world is changed, project types are also changed. DNIC understands and applies the current environmental paradigm based on its various experiences and problem-solving capability.
